Dear Mr. Mies van de Rohe,

Thank you very much indeed for the book you sent me with your signature, which I will treasure always. I am sorry that I did not see you at Mr. Priestley's party last night as I had so much expected. I am leaving Chicago for Buffalo early this morning; therefore, please allow me to bid you, Mrs. & daughter goodbye by this letter. I hope I shall be able to come back and see you again one day.

Yours sincerely,
Voddyakara,
